

where a sense of wonder meets a world of possibility

As the world grows, the focus has shifted from meeting today's challenges to planning for tomorrow's needs—particularly the need for power and energy infrastructure. In this world of possibilities, SPX provides a global perspective and the ingenuity to transform ideas into powerful solutions for our customers. Where will our ideas meet your industry? Learn how we are meeting needs for a wide range of industries around the world at www.spx.com/ideas
